

The Carolina Postdoctoral Program for Faculty Diversity The University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill

As part of a continuing commitment to advance scholars from underrepresented groups in higher education, The University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill Carolina Postdoctoral Program for Faculty Diversity is pleased to announce the availability of postdoctoral research appointments for a period of two years. The purpose of the Program is to develop scholars from underrepresented groups for possible tenure track appointments at the University of North Carolina. Postdoctoral scholars will be primarily research associates engaged full-time in research and may teach only one course per year. Applications for study in any discipline represented at the University are welcome.

The UNC School of Public Health, Department of Maternal and Child Health, strongly encourages candidates interested in MCH to apply.

The stipend will be $35,625 per calendar year. Health benefits and leave are available. Some funds are available for research expenses, including travel. Interested applicants who will have completed their doctoral degree no later than July 1, 2008 and no earlier than July 1, 2004 are eligible to apply. Preference will be given to U.S. citizens and permanent residents. This program is funded by the State of North Carolina.

A complete application will include a 2008 application, cover letter addressed to Vice Chancellor Tony Waldrop, curriculum vitae, sample publications and/or dissertation chapters, three letters of recommendation, a statement of research plans and a separate statement on why you should be selected for the program. Applications can be found at <http://research.unc.edu/red/postdoc.html>. If recommendation letters accompany application materials, they should be in a sealed envelope. Electronic submissions are preferred and should be emailed to Application2008@unc.edu. Incomplete or late applications will not be accepted. All materials must be postmarked by Thursday, January 3, 2008.
