

NARRATIVES OF HIV: HEARING THEIR STORIES

A series of UNC-CH media events about HIV/AIDS around the world.

Sponsored by the Schools of Medicine, Public Health, and Journalism & Mass Communication.

Wed, Feb 11 at 7 p.m.

A Closer Walk

Carolina Union Auditorium

The first full-length feature documentary about how the world responds to HIV/AIDS. Academy Award-nominated Director Robert Bilheimer will attend and answer questions at this special screening. (See www.acloserwalk.org for more about the film.)

Wed, Feb 25 at 5:30 p.m.

Mark Schoofs

Carroll Hall

Journalist Schoofs won the Pulitzer Prize for his series, "The Agony of Africa." He'll speak about international reporting and why HIV is THE big story.

Mon, March 22 at 7:15 p.m.

Voices of HIV

Rosenau Hall Auditorium

A screening of "HIV Positive Voices," a documentary about AIDS in Baltimore, with a panel discussion about AIDS in America's cities and what you can do to help.

For more information, please contact anton@zuiker.com