

SAVE THE DATE – Wednesday November 16, 2011

TAPS Fall 2011 Dinner & Meeting

“The Great Migration and African-American Mortality: Evidence from the Deep South”

by: Seth Sanders, PhD, Director, Duke Population Research Institute & Professor of Economics and Public Policy, Duke University

Date: Wednesday, November 16, 2011

RSVP: by Friday, November 11, 2011, to John Stanback at jstanback@fhi360.org

Place: Sheraton Hotel - Chapel Hill - 1 Europa Drive, (919) 968-4900 (see Map)

Time: 5:30pm - 8:30pm

Arrival/social hour 5:30-6:15

Dinner 6:15-7:15

Discussion and Q&A 7:15-8:15

Cost: $24 per person (students $12)

Payment will be collected at the door. (Following longstanding TAPS policy, if you make a reservation, you are responsible for payment if you do not attend, unless you send a paying substitute or cancel before Nov 11.)

About TAPS: For 25 years, the Triangle Area Population Society (TAPS) has served as a forum to bring together professionals and students in the Triangle Area interested in population, reproductive health, development, and demographic change globally and in the United States.

Current TAPS Officers (2011–2013):, President; John Stanback, FHI 360, President; Maureen Corbett, IntraHealth International, Vice-President/President elect; Brooke Levandowski, Ipas, Program Chair; Helen Koo, RTI International, and Dick Bilsborrow, University of North Carolina, Co-Treasurers.